

Graham's Followers To Take Platform for Him

NEW YORK, JUNE 5—(AP)—Some of the men and women who have made "decisions for Christ" at Billy Graham meetings are going to give him a hand in trying to get others to do the same.

The evangelist told a crowd of 17,500 at Madison Square Garden last night that beginning Sunday, a succession of these individuals will take the platform with him each night to tell their stories.

"They will tell you of the revolution and change that Christ has brought in their lives," he said.

GRAHAM TONIGHT starts the fourth week of his New York crusade, now scheduled to run six more weeks. He said the opening phase has been "wonderful, glorious."

"We've seen God move here as we've never seen him move in our ministry," Graham said. He urged Christians to get their non-religious friends to the services.

So far, attendance has totaled 374,500, with 12,684 of them responding to Graham's plea to "accept Christ." This is an average of 604 each night—the largest response Graham has ever had.

A BRITISH CHURCHMAN, the Rev. Stephen Olford, who has been helping Graham in the crusade and who also aided in Graham's 1954 London crusade, said the effects here have been much greater.

In his sermon, the last in a series of the ten commandments, Graham preached on the subject, "Thou shalt not covet." He said Americans are flouting the commandment by their grasping materialism.
